Vega joins JM Coull as business development manager

March 19, 2015 - Construction Design & Engineering

Stacey Vega has joined JM Coull, Inc., as business development manager. She will spearhead the firm's growth among the healthcare and corporate/industrial sectors, including life sciences, advanced technology, non-technical manufacturing and fit-up/commercial. Vega brings more than 14 years of diverse business development, marketing and sales experience to the JM Coull team.

Vega is a Cum Laude graduate of Villanova University. She holds a BA in Sociology and Communications, and also has certification in social media marketing from Harvard University's Executive Education Program.

"We couldn't be happier to have Stacey join our team," said JM Coull president Andy Coull. "Her extensive background, experience and business relationships are true assets for JM Coull as we continue to grow in 2015 and beyond. Stacey has already brought tremendous value to our business development program in the short time she's been here, and we're excited to see what the future holds."
