Big Lots holds grand opening for 31,000 s/f store in Revere

March 26, 2015 - Retail

Big Lots is holding a grand opening for its new a 31,000 s/f store at Wonderland Marketplace, according to Robert Lemons, managing partner of KeyPoint Partners, which manages and leases Wonderland. Vice president of leasing Don Mace negotiated the lease with Big Lots in May of 2014. The grand opening was held on March 6, and included a ribbon-cutting by Big Lots representatives and distinguished guests from the city. Big Lots is opening in 31,000 s/f of the former Stop & Shop space at the center.

The remaining 33,599 s/f of the space is available for lease, and is sub-dividable. Additional vacancies at the center include a 3,909 s/f in-line unit, and a 4,800 s/f end-cap. Wonderland Marketplace is a 135,000 s/f shopping center, anchored by the new Big Lots, Marshalls, and Staples and featuring Hair Cuttery, Ninety-Nine restaurant, and the U.S. Post Office.
