Abichaker joins Eckman's estimating department

April 02, 2015 - Northern New England

Eckman Construction has hired Christine Abichaker to join the company's estimating department. In her new position, Abichaker will assist with estimating tasks on various projects and will coordinate and interface with local area subcontractors to provide accurate cost estimates to architects and project owners.

"I have known Christine on a personal level for some time now and this is a great opportunity for her to take the next step in her career," said Mark Walsh, president and CEO, Eckman Construction. "Christine is a great communicator and will bring a fresh perspective to our estimating department. I am very excited to bring her into the fold at Eckman and I am confident that she will be a great asset to our team."
