Lorscheider joins Acella as construction supervisor

April 16, 2015 - Construction Design & Engineering

Acella Construction Corp. hired Robin Lorscheider as a construction supervisor.

In this role, Lorscheider directs complex projects and oversees all phases of construction projects from initial planning to completion. In addition, he establishes and maintains effective working relationships with staff members and the community, supervises all site subcontractors, and cultivates a positive, encouraging, and safe work environment.

Lorscheider is overseeing work on two of MIT's campus buildings.

"We are happy to welcome Robin to Acella," said Dave Dirubbo, president of Acella. "We look forward to his continuing contributions in ensuring the highest quality on our construction jobs and the highest level of safety for our contractors and subcontractors."
