Dalton, O'Leary & Baldwin of DTZ represent Gutierrez Co. in 26,706 s/f lease - Spencer of Jumbo Capital represents tenant, 128 Technology, Inc

May 07, 2015 - Front Section

According to DTZ, a global leader in commercial real estate services, 128 Technology, Inc. will relocate to 26,706 s/f at The Summit, located at 200 Wheeler Rd. DTZ represented the owner, The Gutierrez Company, in the transaction. 128 Technology, Inc. is a startup in the technology sector.

"Burlington has become a center of gravity in the area for retail, restaurants and services," said Andy Ory, CEO of 128 Technology, Inc. "Burlington has become, and continues to gain ground, as a place where either established tech companies, or companies that are about to "break out" choose to locate."

The Summit is a 6-story, class A office building conveniently located off of Rte. 128 with easy access to Rte. 3 and nearby restaurants and retail. The first-class office building offers full amenities including a full café and fitness room with showers and lockers for tenants.

DTZ Boston's executive managing director, Michael Dalton, senior vice president Michael O'Leary and Associate Blake Baldwin represented The Gutierrez Co. Brad Spencer from Jumbo Capital represented 128 Technology, Inc.

"Burlington offers the amenities of the city without the cost," said Dalton. "Here, 128 Technology, Inc. will have the room and the resources to prosper."

"We're thrilled to welcome 128 Technology to The Summit," said Doug Fainelli, vice president of operations for The Gutierrez Co. "Burlington is a suburban epicenter for technology companies, and we feel that 128 Technology will fit right into The Summit."
