ASM exhibits at The Blue Book Showcase

May 14, 2015 - Construction Design & Engineering

ASM recently exhibited at The Blue Book Building & Construction Network Showcase at Patriot Place, adjacent to Gillette Stadium in Foxborough. This annual event brings together a wealth of design professionals, contractors, and equipment and service providers to reconnect, share notes, and learn from industry experts and peers. Seeing old friends and meeting new ones while waving the ASM banner is always a treat, and we're looking forward to next year's event!
