Martin named shareholder at Colliers International

July 02, 2015 - Northern New England

According to Colliers International, a global leader in commercial real estate services, Doug Martin, senior associate, has been elected a new shareholder of the independently owned and operated New Hampshire location. Martin has been with the company for 11 years and is a graduate of Plymouth State University.

In addition to being one of the top producers in the New Hampshire office, Martin is on the board of directors of NHCIBOR, a contributing member of NHCIBOR Cares, graduate of The Leadership Greater Manchester program and a member of the zoning board in New Boston. He is also an annual participant of numerous bike rides and runs for charities, with the Alzheimer's Association Memory Ride among his favorites.

Bob Rohrer, managing director and partner, said, "Doug Martin has been, and continues to be a top producer and valuable member of the Colliers International | New Hampshire firm and we are excited for him to join our ownership team."
