Sims joins Choyce Peterson as senior vice president

April 30, 2008 - Front Section

Choyce Peterson, Inc. has hired David Sims as senior VP.

With over 30 years of commercial real estate experience Sims has leased over 18 million s/f of office space and sold 6 buildings worth more than $150 million.

According to John Hannigan, principal at Choyce Peterson, "Over the course of our careers, we all meet people who stand out because of their intelligence and integrity."

Sims received his BA from Syracuse. He taught a course at the NYU Real Estate Institute and served on several committees.
