Sorge promoted to discipline leader for landscape architecture by Stantec

July 16, 2015 - Connecticut

New Haven-based landscape architect Gary Sorge has been promoted to discipline leader for landscape architecture for North American design firm Stantec. In this new role, Sorge will continue to develop, implement, and promote the landscape architecture practice across Stantec's 250 offices and with the firm's existing and new clients.

With nearly 30 years of landscape architecture experience, Sorge has led a wide range of public and private sector improvement projects, from streetscapes, parks, and public spaces to historic, waterfront, and industrial remediation and restoration efforts.
