Edward D. Jones & Co. joins Saletin's Crossroads Office Park

September 10, 2015 - Rhode Island

Edward D. Jones & Company has leased office space at Crossroads Office Park, a seven-building development with over 100,000 s/f. The national firm services individual investors and small business owners with over 12,000 North American locations, of which is its Cranston office at 63 Sockanosset Cross Rd.

Saletin Real Estate Group is the property manager of Crossroads Office Park. President Jeffrey Saletin, explained Edward Jones was attracted to the property because of its excellent condition and convenient location. Saletin said, "We're very pleased with the positive reviews we receive from prospective tenants and brokers throughout the area. We take pride in the condition of the property so in an effort to maintain our high level of standard, we regularly update the buildings and grounds. As our occupancy rate remains high, we recently expanded the parking lot to meet the needs of tenants' across the office park. Tenants are very happy here."

Paul Halloran of Real Estate Services Group was the tenant's representative in the lease transaction.
