Jones Lang LaSalle hires Slye as market director

May 07, 2008 - Front Section

David Slye has been named market director of Jones Lang LaSalle's New England region. Slye will oversee the performance and set direction for the New England office.

Slye has served in various leadership positions during his tenure with the firm, and as principal with the former Spaulding & Slye.

Recently he worked with the managing directors in business development as the primary point of contact for institutional and corporate clients. Â Â Â
