

nerej

Colliers Meredith & Grew approves promotions and two new shareholders

May 15, 2008 - Front Section

Colliers Meredith & Grew has appointed two new shareholders in the firm.

Robert Cronin, senior VP, Brokerage Group

Cronin joined the firm in 1998 and is a broker in the Suburban Brokerage group. He is a graduate of Boston College.

Neil Hurley, senior VP, Development & Advisory Services

Hurley joined the firm in 2000 and is a senior member of the Development & Advisory Services group. He is a graduate of Harvard University and Boston University.

"We congratulate our new shareholders," said Thomas Hynes, Jr., chairman. "Their work ethic and determination is a driving factor in our firm's continued success."

Additionally, the company approved the following promotions:

*Theodore Lee, senior VP, Brokerage Group

*Patrick Buckley, VP, Brokerage Group

*Elias Demakes, VP, Brokerage Group

*Jeffrey Gates, VP, Brokerage Group

*Jacquelynn Henke, VP, Development & Advisory Services

*Christopher Zanni, VP, Development & Advisory Services

*Suzanne Dowd, assistant VP, Asset & Property Management

*David Goodhue, assistant vice president, Brokerage Group

*Christopher Lawrence, assistant vice president, Brokerage Group

*Jonathan Martin, assistant vice president, Brokerage Group

*Michael McElaney, assistant VP, Brokerage Group

*Valerie Reid, assistant VP, Asset & Property Management Services

*Steven Rizzuto, assistant vice president, Asset & Property Management Services

*Jessica Sawyer, assistant VP, Development & Advisory Services

*William Smith, assistant VP, asset & property management services

*Andrew Weesner, assistant VP, Development & Advisory Services

"All of these individuals are proven leaders who have made significant contributions to Colliers Meredith & Grew. We are pleased to recognize their hard work and efforts," said Kevin Phelan, president.