Pulito named president of S/L/A/M Collaborative and chair of newly formed executive committee

November 29, 2007 - Connecticut

The board of directors of The S/L/A/M Collaborative, an architectural firm with offices in Atlanta, Boston, Chicago and Connecticut, elected Robert Pulito, AIA as president of the firm and chair of the newly formed executive committee, five of S/L/A/M's most experienced leaders who will serve as the firm's core management group.

In addition to Pulito, they are: Steven Ansel, AIA, ACHA, chief design officer; Richard Connell, AIA, responsible for studio project management teams; William Karanian, AIA, ACHA, chief operations officer; and Mary Jo Olenick, AIA, chief of business development.

James McManus, FAIA will continue to serve as chairman of the board of directors.
