IREM Boston chapter attends regional meeting

April 07, 2017 - Owners Developers & Managers

Peter Lewis, The Schochet Cos.

The Boston chapter was well represented in New York on March 21 - 23 for the regional meeting combined with Region 1 (CT, ME, MA, NH, RI, VT), Region 2 (DE, NJ, NY, PA) and Region 3 (DC, MD, VA). The meeting provided critical information on chapter leadership and industry trends as well as the asset and property management symposium.

April 10 - 21 we are hosting Congressional In-District Meetings. The IREM Congressional In-District Program will help us connect with members of congress at home. Both the U.S. house of representatives and the U.S. senate have scheduled district work periods during that time.

April 6 the chapter hosted the Massachusetts State House Tour, with a networking event immediately following at Scholars American Bistro.

Also, fast approaching is the deadline for income and expense reporting. It is very important that we have the members' participation in order to meet the chapter's reporting goals. To receive a half-priced digital Income/Expense publication submit all data between April 2 and April 30.

For more information, please contact the income/expense analysis manager, Matthew O'Hara at 800-837-0706 Ext. 6025 or by Email mohara@irem.org.

The IREM Foundation is a resource for people and organizations seeking to advance the profession of real estate management.
