Community Associations Institute (CAI) is a national nonprofit 501(c)(6) organization founded in 1973 to foster competent, responsive community associations through research, training and education. CAI is dedicated to building better communities, and with more than 34,000 members, CAI works in partnership with 60 chapters, including the New England chapter with offices in Wellesley, Mass., to identify and meet the evolving needs of the professionals and volunteers who serve associations. By being a trusted forum for the collaborative exchange of knowledge and information, and by helping our members learn, achieve and excel, the institute inspires professionalism, effective leadership and responsible citizenship—ideals reflected in associations that are preferred places to call home.
