Vineburgh and DiMella of Charlesgate Realty Group bringing six new developments to market this year

May 05, 2017 - Owners Developers & Managers

Boston, MA Charlesgate Realty Group continues to expand its presence in the multifamily marketing and brokerage space with six new development projects coming to market this spring and summer; 4 condominium buildings and 2 rental lease ups. Charlesgate continues its momentum with the following 4 condominium projects:

- The Aberdeen - A 40-unit high end condominium project located at 1650 Commonwealth Ave. in Brighton, developed by Westbrook Partners and built by Dellbrook/JKS with owner's rep Waypoint KLA.
- The Abbott - A boutique 8-unit luxury development in Back Bay developed by MG2 and built by Alaris Construction.
- Lumen Charlestown - 30 condominiums abutting the future One Charlestown location, developed by Gansett Ventures and built by The Waypoint Companies.
- Penniman on The Park - A 36-unit condominium building one block from the new Everett St. T station, developed by Jumbo Capital and built by Groom Construction.

All projects will be managed by Charlesgate property management upon turnover to the HOAs, and will be delivered in Q1 2018; less The Abbott, which will be ready in August.

The 2 rental lease ups are:

- Nova Brighton- 80 unit apartment asset developed by LBC Boston/Partners Properties and built by D.F. Pray. .
- The Vault- 50 unit apartment asset located in Lynn, steps to the Lynn Central Commuter Rail stop, developed by MG2 and built by Alaris Construction, with completion set for June. Charlesgate Property Management will be managing this asset as well.
