Baker and Klimek of Cushman & Wakefield's Connecticut office broker 5,420 s/f lease for MCP II Wright St.

May 12, 2017 - Front Section

Westport, CT Cushman & Wakefield's Connecticut office has closed a long term, 5,420 s/f lease at the newly renovated 8|10 Wright St. complex, owned by an affiliate of Marcus Partners with HighTower Advisors taking a portion of the 1st floor.

A Cushman & Wakefield team of Steven Baker and Adam Klimek represented the owner, MCP II Wright Street, LLC, while Dave Fugitt and Bruce Wettenstein of Vidal/Wettenstein and CBIZ's Chicago team jointly represented the tenant.

"The landlord made this deal easy to execute by accommodating Hightower with architectural services as well as the promise to deliver a seamless turnkey installation," said Klimek. "Having recently completed a full-property renovation to provide the optimal tenant experience, ownership is gratified to welcome HighTower, who will further benefit from the property's central Westport location."

David Fiore, principal with Marcus Partners, also noted that with this new lease, the 84,000 s/f class A office complex— consisting of 8 and 10 Wright St. – is over 90% leased with four remaining available spaces.

Located in downtown on 4.5 acres overlooking the Saugatuck River, 8-10 Wright St. is positioned on the corner of Post Rd. West (U.S.-1), Rte. 33 and Wright St. The property is close to the Merritt Pkwy. and the Metro-North train station. The location offers views of the Saugatuck River and downtown, and is within walking distance to the downtown shopping district with boutiques, national retailers and several restaurants, including, Bartaco, Arezzo Ristorante and Da Pietro.

8-10 Wright St. has been fully renovated with new full height windows offering dramatic panoramic views, new glass canopies at the building entrances, new building signage, fully renovated restrooms and corridors, and a beautifully landscaped courtyard.
