Wayland, MA Dean Blackey has been named managing director of R.W. Holmes Realty Co. Since joining the company as a commercial real estate broker in 1999, he has represented over 350 of suburban Boston businesses. Currently, Blackey represents over two million s/f of office and industrial properties for sale or lease in the MetroWest area.

“Dean has played a significant role in our company’s growth,” said R.W. Holmes president Garry Holmes whose father founded the company in 1976 and celebrated their 40th anniversary last year.

Blackey, an 18-year veteran at R.W. Holmes, cites office and industrial properties and investment as his specialty although he has a comprehensive understanding of all facets of commercial real estate brokerage.

Blackey is a graduate of Bates College.

His past clients include Partners HealthCare, Perini Corp., Middlesex Savings Bank, Atlantic Management and the Massachusetts Dental Society. Dean currently serves on the board of directors for the Metro West Chamber of Commerce.

“The team of brokers at R.W. Holmes Realty has more than 230 years of combined commercial real estate experience with most of our brokers averaging more than 25 years with the company,” Blackey said. “The extensive and successful experience of our senior brokers, combined with the younger brokers joining us in recent years, have created a well-balanced team that is passionate about commercial real estate and always striving to exceed our clients’ expectations. As managing director, my goal is to identify key areas for expansion within the greater Boston area, accelerate our growth and hiring, and incorporate some strategic technology initiatives internally so we can continue to provide our commercial real estate expertise to tenants and property owners,” he said.
