“We are excited to be moving our headquarters to Ashland,” said Tim Martel, owner and founder of Martel HVAC. “The building will accommodate our growing company while providing us with a strong presence on Route 135 in Ashland”.

54-58 Union St. was formerly owned and occupied by Eurobrew Inc, a specialty beer importer that occupied the space since 2006. The property consists of office space and basement storage with a large parking lot.

“We are happy to pass the building along to another local business,” said former owner Dominique Levesque. “We are confident that the building will serve Martel HVAC well.”
