Keaney of Diversity Construction Group to speak at Associated Builders and Contractors National Summit

June 09, 2017 - Front Section

Cheshire, CT According to Diversity Construction Group (DCG), their president James Keaney, Jr. has been invited to speak at the Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) National Legislative Week: Diversity & Inclusion Summit from June 19 - 20.

Keaney said, "I am excited to share our passions and values that have led us, our partners and subcontractors to promoting diversity and inclusion in our industry. DCG is committed to making a difference in the construction industry."

DCG is a commercial construction company located in Conn. DCG is a full service general building contractor, specializing in public and private projects. DCG was founded in 2011 and has an extensive number of completed contracts that we are proud to showcase. These include school renovations, historical renovations, ADA improvements, and athletic field construction.

DCG employs a skilled workforce and their employees have extensive experience in all areas of commercial construction from pre-construction to close out. DCG is committed to employing a culturally diverse workforce and actively seeks our minority and women-owned subcontractors to be part of our team.

Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) is a national construction industry trade association representing nearly 21,000 chapter members. Founded on the merit shop philosophy, ABC and its 70 chapters help members develop people, win work and deliver that work safely, ethically, profitably and for the betterment of the communities in which ABC and its members work.
