STAG Capital Partners completes two industrial sales totaling 91,000 s/f

October 02, 2007 - Front Section

STAG Capital Partners, a real estate firm that pro-actively acquires and manages single tenant, net-leased properties throughout the U.S., has purchased two industrial buildings totaling 91,000 s/f.

The properties located at 6051 N. Lee Highway and 2311 N. Lee Highway in Lexington, VA range in size from 16,000 to 75,000 s/f and are located 8 miles from one another along I-81. Both properties are fully leased to Base-X, Inc., a manufacturer of shelters and products providing complete mobile infrastructure solutions for Military and Homeland Defense applications.

James McVey of Commonwealth Commercial Partners, represented the seller, Maurer-Winfrey, LLC, while STAG was represented in-house by Ted Norberg.

STAG acquires single-tenant, net leased properties via 3rd party transactions and corporate sale-leasebacks.
