Stamford, CT According to Newmark Knight Frank (NKF), Janey Steinmetz has joined the firm as an associate director. Steinmetz will focus on the development of NKF's restaurant and retail services businesses, specializing in high street retail and luxury markets. She concentrates on developing and executing thoughtful and creative real estate solutions that align with each of her client's unique business objectives.

Over the course of her career, Steinmetz has completed numerous transactions with high profile local, regional and national retail tenants including Starbucks, Chipotle, The UPS Store, AT&T, PJ Clarke's, Sprint, Insomnia Cookies and solidcore. Steinmetz is well-versed in large-scale master plan development projects and represented the University of Pennsylvania in planning and leasing its 350,000 s/f retail portfolio. Additionally, she spearheaded the leasing efforts for new construction and redevelopment projects for The Summit at Drexel University and The Curtis.

"Janey is the perfect fit for our dynamic team. We loved her energy from the moment we met," said senior managing director Jessica Curtis. "Add to that, the level of accomplishment she has achieved at a young age speaks volumes about her potential to bolster our expanding restaurant and retail service businesses, and we are excited by the new insights and fresh ideas she will bring to our team."
