A. Autiello Construction completes 30,000 s/f addition for Toray

August 11, 2017 - Rhode Island

North Kingstown, RI A. Autiello Construction Co., (AACC) a construction management firm headquartered in Cranston, completed the J6/J7 production line expansion for Toray Plastics (America), Inc. (Toray). The 30,000 s/f addition will house Toray's new food packing lines at their facility in the Quonset Business Park.

Toray retained the services of AACC to design and construct the addition, providing Toray with a single source solution. In addition to the Toray expansion, AACC has completed a number of projects in the Quonset Business Park including: Dominion Diagnostics, NOAA Okeanos Explorer Berthing Facility, and the NORAD Bentley Distribution Building.

Anthony Autiello, Jr., president of AACC said, "On behalf of everyone at A. Autiello Construction, we are very proud to be a part of a project that will bring manufacturing jobs back to our home state of Rhode Island"
