Perone named director of community relations at EPOCH Senior Living

August 18, 2017 - Connecticut

Norwalk, CT EPOCH Senior Living has named Christy Perone director of community relations at Bridges by EPOCH at Norwalk, a 64-suite memory care assisted living community that will open at 123 Richards Ave. in the fall. Perone will focus on building relationships with local organizations and offering guidance to families considering memory care assisted living.

Perone has previously served as director of community relations for senior living communities in Connecticut and North Carolina. She has 25 years of experience in senior living marketing. Perone serves as a member of the Walk to End Alzheimer's committee and was nominated as one of the 2016 Women's Champions for the organization's Connecticut chapter.
