The IREM Global Summit to be held October 10 - 13 in Chicago

August 18, 2017 - Connecticut

Chicago, IL The IREM Global Summit from October 10-13 will deliver a reengineered, contemporary conference experience for commercial and multifamily property and asset managers. The Global Summit is one of the only events designed for real estate managers in all facets of the industry. Quite simply, it's where the best in the business will gather. Talent. Trust. Teamwork.

What do fighter pilots, rock stars and real estate managers have in common? To be successful, you have to lead and trust in the people you surround yourself with. On October 11 and October 13, keynote speakers Mark Schulman and John Foley will show you how to achieve peak performance from your team and yourself.

Leadership. Influence. Expertise.

IREM is assembling an esteemed panel of association volunteer leaders at the Industry Leaders Lunch on October 13, for an insightful discussion on the state of industry today and how it's trending into the future.
