Marcum Women's Forum coming to Boston at 60 State St. on October 30

September 08, 2017 - Front Section

Boston, MA Marcum LLP, a top national accounting and advisory firm, will be bringing the annual Marcum Women's Forum to the city for the first time on October 30. Geared to high net worth and executive women, the breakfast event features nationally prominent speakers on topics essential to women's personal and professional well-being.

Entitled Safe and Sound: Smart Choices for Savvy Women, Marcum's Boston forum will feature a keynote address by Alison Levine, team captain of the first American Women's Everest Expedition, discussing leadership lessons from extreme environments. Jeanne Rizzo, president of Breast Cancer Prevention Partners, who is also on the program for Marcum's New York City and San Francisco women's forums, will speak on Cancer Prevention and Public Policy, focusing on the hidden health impacts of common consumer products. Joining Rizzo on the program for all three events, a panel on Women Traveling Alone will be presented by Heather Bearfield and Frank Rudewicz, Marcum principals who specialize in personal, corporate, and cybersecurity.

The Marcum Women's Forum will be held at the State Room, 60 State St., 33rd Floor, from 8 to 11:30 a.m. To register and for more information, visit www.marcumevents.com.

The Marcum Women's Forum is presented by the firm's family wealth services practice and the Marcum women's initiative. Net proceeds will benefit the Marcum Foundation. Marcum LLP is a top national accounting and advisory firm.

"The Marcum Women's Forum is designed for women who move fluidly in the business world and in the world at large. We are honored to present such an outstanding panel of speakers and fully expect the Boston event to be standing room only, as it has been in our other locations," said Bearfield, who is chairing the Boston forum.

The Marcum Family Wealth Services Group is dedicated to helping clients manage their wealth, plan for its transfer to succeeding generations, accomplish their lifetime objectives, and achieve their philanthropic goals. The Marcum Women's Initiative is a Marcum Diversity & Inclusion program dedicated to the career success of Marcumwomen. The Marcum Foundation supports non-profit organizations in Marcum communities across the country. For more information, visit www.marcumllp.com.
