Jalbert promoted to vice president of Hancock Associates

September 22, 2017 - Retail

Scott Jalbert, Hancock Associates

Danvers, MA According to Hancock Associates, a leading local provider of land surveying, civil engineering and wetland science services, Scott Jalbert, P.L.S., has been promoted to the position of vice president. He has joined the company's management team and will continue as senior project manager based in both the Chelmsford and Danvers offices. The promotion is part of a strategic plan to position the firm for the next phase of growth.

With over 20 years of experience in land surveying, Jalbert is responsible for the coordination of utility, residential, commercial and municipal projects including client contact and supervising field and office staff in the preparation of final plans and associated documents. He is also responsible for CAD and GPS operations and oversees the duration of various survey projects. He directs the field crew's use of survey instrumentation including Robotic Total Stations, G.P.S. and Prismless Total Stations.

Jalbert's land surveying experience includes boundary surveys, ALTA/NSPS title insurance surveys, construction layout projects, FEMA elevation certificates, deformation/settlement monitoring surveys and existing conditions plans.

Jalbert holds a Certificate in Land Surveying from the University of Massachusetts, Lowell, is a licensed professional land surveyor in Massachusetts and a member of the Massachusetts Association of Land Surveyors and Civil Engineers (MALSCE). He is MBTA Contractor Safety Trained and OSHA 40 Hour Hazardous Waste Operations Emergency Response (HAZWOPER) Certified. He lives in Salem, Massachusetts.

"I am fortunate to work with an outstanding team at Hancock Associates. Whether we are consulting on a short-term project like assisting homeowners on a new addition or on a long-term public infrastructure or commercial development, everyone is focused on exceeding client expectations," said Jalbert. "I look forward to continuing that tradition every day."

"Over Scott's 23 years at Hancock Associates, I've seen him hone his research and problem-solving skills and grow into an exceptional team leader," said Hancock Associates' president Wayne Jalbert. "It's my pleasure to have him as part of our management team and continue our mission of providing exceptional service and maintaining long-term client relationships.”
