55 Shore Road - Bristol, RI

According to MLS data, this marks the 4th sale of a single-family home in Bristol for over a million dollars this year and RPL has listed 3 of them.

Custom built in 1999, this waterfront residence evokes the "Newport Seaside Shingle Style" architecture perfected by architects H. H. Richardson and McKim, Mead & White. The great room's stone fireplace is double sided and open to the family room with walls of windows and views of the bay. This property is located in the Bristol Highland's Association with tennis courts, a private beach and a club house. The property is located right by the East Bay Bike Path and just a short ride from historic Colt State Park.
