The landlord in this transaction was Washington Capital Management, who was represented by vice president Rob Mahoney of JLL. The New England Regional headquarters for Walgreens wanted a location that had access to many interstate routes; Lake Williams Center, located at 62 Forest St., was the perfect fit, being close to both I-495 and I-90/Mass Pike.

"I was pleased to have the opportunity to work with such a sophisticated world-wide company with extensive in-house resources and whose employees were so very helpful and cooperative," said Brown.
