Nominations sought for 22nd annual N.H. Construction Industry Ethics Award - deadline Dec. 4

October 20, 2017 - Construction Design & Engineering

David Wood

Deering, NH Nominations are currently being sought for the 22nd annual New Hampshire Construction Industry Ethics Award. The award is presented to “the individual, business or organization that, through its words and deeds, best demonstrates a commitment to upholding the highest ethical standards in construction.” The award carries with it a handsome plaque and $1,000 cash contribution to the recipient’s charity of choice.

Nominations will be accepted through December 4, 2017, with the recipient to be announced in April. Guidelines for nominating deserving individuals and/or companies may be obtained by contacting the award’s sponsor, David Wood, at 503 E. Deering Road, Deering, NH 03244; via phone at 603-529-2355, or e-mail: woody@wordsfromwoody.com.

Wood, now retired, was a nationally-recognized writer and newsletter publisher. A past president of the Construction Writers Association, he has long championed the issue of ethics in construction.

Judging for the award is done by a distinguished panel of New Hampshire industry-related individuals, people whose own integrity and judgment is universally respected, and includes past award recipients.
