AAFCPAs moves to 18,964 s/f headquarters

November 10, 2017 - Front Section

Westborough, MA AAFCPAs, a best-in-class CPA and consulting firm known for assurance, tax, accounting, wealth management, valuation, and business and IT advisory solutions, moved its headquarters to a larger office space located at 50 Washington St. The new space is 18,964 s/f, 5,000 s/f larger than its current headquarters.

The new space accommodates the firm's recent growth and offers a collaborative, technology-rich, and inspiring workspace. Employees will enjoy a larger headquarter, with modern touchdown spaces, amenities and décor that reflects the firm's brand.

"Our new space serves our employees, who ultimately serve our clients," said co-managing partner David McManus. "This is an exciting moment for all in the firm's 45-year history."

Additionally, renovations of the new space include the addition of a recording studio. The studio is designed to enhance and evolve the content developed to share the Firm's insights and expertise, which is highly regarded by its clients.

"We are excited to provide our employees with an innovative and flexible work space helping them to engage with teams and enhance innovative ideas today as well as when we expand in the future," said McManus. "We are thrilled about the practicalities of the new space and the progressive feel of the environment we've created."

"Our new headquarters was designed to foster a collaborative and cohesive environment," said Carla McCall, co-managing partner at AAFCPAs.

"This move allows us to expand our unique programs like the 'Women's Opportunity Network' and 'Volunteer Committee,' and create innovative workshops, groups, and training seminars for incoming talent."

Architecture firm, Walsh/Cochis Associates Inc. spearheaded the office space's remodel, and AAFCPAs' client, Walker Development executed the construction. The space contains 26 offices and 8 conference rooms, including the addition of a training room. The Alexander Training Room is named in honor of founder Herb Alexander and celebrates the Firm's core value of continuous learning.
