High Ridge Park Corporate Center spearheads blood drive challenge

July 02, 2008 - Connecticut

High Ridge Park Corporate Center is spearheading and participating in the second annual Stamford Property Manager and Landlord Blood Drive Challenge. George Comfort & Sons' Jodi Gutierrez recently issued the challenge and participants are currently being organized.

Mayor Dannel Malloy accepted the challenge by braving the needle on June 18th at the Stamford Government Center located at 888 Washington Blvd. City of Stamford government employees also participated at that time. The Blood Drive Challenge will continue throughout the summer.

Current participants include: George Comfort & Sons; Ashforth; RFR Realty, LLC; Reckson, a division of SL Green Realty Corp.; W&M Properties; Antares Real Estate; and Stamford Board of Realtors. Participants in the challenge can register at www.givelife.org to donate blood.

High Ridge Park is currently seeking additional property managers and landlords to participate in the challenge. For further information, contact Jodi Gutierrez via e-mail jgutierrez@att.net.
