Quincy, MA According to J. Calnan & Associates, Inc. (JC&A), one of New England's leading construction management firms, vice president Scott Trull has been named Partner.

Trull has been with JC&A for ten years, managing teams on more than 250 corporate office projects of all sizes. His commitment to clients and dedication to the successful outcome of every project has directly contributed to JC&A's ability to cultivate repeat relationships with high profile clients including Amazon, Parexel, Boston Properties, EMC, Pegasystems, Reebok, GE, SanDisk, Polycom, Philips, and Liberty Mutual to name a few.

Trull also has extensive experience in the academic sector. Over his 20 years in the industry, he has worked on projects for universities such as Towson University, University of Pennsylvania, Harvard University, and his alma mater Brown University. He has been instrumental in furthering JC&A's existing relationships in both the higher education and the secondary school markets through their work with Boston College, Bentley University, Babson University, Tufts University, Malden Academy, Phillips Academy, Notre Dame Academy, The Park School, The Guild School, Shady Hill and Newton Country Day School.

"Scott's business acumen, passion for JC&A, and work ethic can only be matched by his personal character and unwavering commitment to always doing the right thing. His elevation to Partner reflects his achievement, contributions, and accomplishments within our organization, as well as the industry as a whole," said COO Mike Crowther.

"I am honored to join the partners at JC&A as we continue building this first-class organization. The firm has always operated with the highest integrity, putting the client's needs first at every turn, and committing to the development of its employees. Being able to impact JC&A's growth and strategy from the partnership level is very exciting," said Trull.

Trull joins partners Jay Calnan, CEO; Jim Cahill, president; Mike Crowther, COO; Tim Kelly, CFO; and Steve Robak, EVP. He will continue to deliver for corporate clients while also focusing on the advancement of our academic sector and JC&A's strategic initiatives including employee training and development, technology tools, and overall processes and procedures.

J. Calnan & Associates is a leader in providing construction management and preconstruction services in the Academic, Corporate, Healthcare and Science & Technology markets in the Northeast. For 20 years, our strategic thinking, proactive approach and commitment to clients and the communities in which we live has made us a leader in the industry and attracted high-profile clients including Boston Properties, Biogen IDEC, Atlantic Management, Children's Hospital, PTC Inc, Adidas, Shire Pharmaceuticals, The Park School, New England Sports Network (NESN), Philips, Constant Contact, The MathWorks and General Electric to name a few. Among recent awards, JC&A has received a Boston Business Journal Citizenship award for its philanthropic efforts eleven years in a row and CoreNet Global New England Chapter has recognized JC&A as "Regional Service Provider of the Year" two times.
