Baldini joins Franklin Savings Bank as branch manager

January 05, 2018 - Northern New England

Franklin, NH Franklin Savings Bank recently welcomed Renee Baldini to its team. She will assume the role of branch manager at the bank's main office in downtown. In her position, she will be responsible for coaching and supporting sales, service and operational initiatives for her team.

"Renee comes to us with many years of experience in retail banking, which will be a tremendous asset to our retail group," said Joseph Thornton, SVP, retail banking officer. "Her leadership and commitment to providing our customers with outstanding customer service will serve her well in her role with us."

Baldini brings 20 years of experience in banking, having worked for Granite Bank (formerly First Colebrook) as a commercial loan administrator for four years and People's United where she held positions in both retail and marketing for 13 years. She most recently worked as director of development & marketing for Beckwith Development Enterprises LLC.

A graduate of the Leadership Concord Class of 2011, Baldini is a past member of Toastmasters International (2009-2011) and Concord Rotary Club (2006-2009).
