DiCicco, Gulman & Company LLP promotes Carter and McLean to partners

February 02, 2018 - Owners Developers & Managers

Woburn, MA According to DiCicco, Gulman & Company LLP (DGC), Celina Carter, CPA and Linda McLean, CPA, have been promoted to partner at the firm.

“Celina and Linda have emerged as leaders within our organization, and these promotions are well-deserved,” said Laurie Austin, managing partner at DGC. “Their overall approach along with the results they’ve achieved for their clients are a true representation of DGC’s core values of do what it takes, be curious and team first.”

Carter has over 12 years of experience providing tax, auditing, and accounting services. She primarily provides audit, tax, and financial reporting services to real estate clients.

McLean has over 15 years of experience in public accounting, which includes financial statement assurance services, tax advisory services, accounting services and consulting for closely held businesses. She also leads DGC’s employee benefit plan audit practice.

Also, Kimberley Train, CPA, ABV, has been named to the firm’s executive management team. Train is a partner in DGC’s business consulting group.

“With her impressive skill set and wealth of experience, Kim plays a critical role in our organization,” said Austin. “Kim was selected to join the XMT by her fellow partners, which is a true testament to her positive impact and the relationships she has developed at DGC. She is a great addition to our executive management team.”

Train has twenty years of financial advisory experience serving public and privately held companies. She has significant experience managing litigation support and forensic accounting engagements for a wide variety of clients. Some of the subjects that she has consulted on include complex accounting, fraud and forensic investigation, business valuations, business interruption, breach of contract, economic damages, lost profits, and arbitration.

DGC’s executive management team includes Cheryl Burke, Dave Sullivan, Don Troy, Laurie Austin, and Train.
