“New Era was experiencing significant growth and in need of expansion space in the midst of its lease term. Our team was tasked with securing additional space that they could move into quickly with minimal disruption to their day-to-day operations,” said Rizzo. “After evaluating the options in the market, we were able to identify an opportunity for New Era to Expand into 9,300 s/f of adjacent space giving them the ability to occupy the entire floor. The solution at 2 Batterymarch Park addresses New Era’s short- and long-term needs, and we’re happy to reach an agreement with ownership that works for both parties.”
