Construction begins on Twin City Shopping Center renovation

April 27, 2018 - Retail

Leominster, MA Construction has begun April 16th on Twin City Shopping Center's aggressive planning and development with new upgrades, improvements to invigorate the shopping center's experience for the consumers by creating a design that respects today's and tomorrow's consumers. This is a significant investment into the center and community at large.

Architect Brent Heiner of BTH Associates, designer Chris LeBlanc and Andrew Leonard at A.T. Leonard Associates developed the concept. Goguen Construction is the contractor.

Paul DiGeronimo of Geronimo Properties, who manages Twin City Shopping Center said, "We are looking forward to starting this new project. Our focus is the consumer and our community to provide an appealing and enjoyable experience."

Geronimo Properties is one of the largest commercial real estate companies in Central Massachusetts specializing in asset management, development and leasing.
