Malone Commercial Brokers completes five sales totaling $5.06 million

May 04, 2018 - Northern New England

39 Darling Avenue - South Portland, ME

Portland, ME Peter Harrington of Malone Commercial Brokers reported the sale of 257 Deering Ave. The late-Victorian, landmark property represents a classic conversion of a single-family property into a mixed-use property offering both office and apartments.

Harrington noted that the property is ideal for an owner/user. The property offers traffic exposure, a flexible floor plan, vintage details and 13 on-site parking spaces.

The seller, law firm Childs, Rundlett and Altshuler, occupied the building for more than three decades. Chris Lavoie of DOMAINE at Keller Williams Realty, co-investor in the property with Mat O'Brien of O'Brien Wood & Iron, plans to open his office at the location.

"If you consider the income benefits from the two 2-bedroom apartments on the third floor, an owner-user can occupy and offset carrying cost at the same time," Harrington said. "I wish I had a dozen of these listings. There is a great market for this type of asset."

Financed by Bangor Savings Bank, the sale took place in late February for $702,500.
