ASM Biennial GC Showcase - Oct. 17

May 18, 2018 - Construction Design & Engineering

Newton, MA Every two years, ASM holds its popular GC Showcase featuring representatives from the area's leading general contractors (GCs) and construction managers (CMs). The date for this year's event has been set for Wednesday, October 17, 4:00 - 6:30 pm at the Newton Marriott. As in the past, this event will provide GC's and CM's an opportunity to meet and introduce their company to subcontractor professionals from across the state and around the region.

We expect hundreds of subs to attend, so mark your calendars and plan to join us at this industry relationship-building event. You won't want to miss this prime opportunity to introduce your company to potential new customers or reconnect with people and companies you have worked with in the past and explore new opportunities!

For more information about these and any of our other events or webinars please visit the ASM website at www.associatedsubs.com, or contact us at mail@associatedsubs.com or 617-742-3412.
