Woodbury, national officer speaking at the October 25th meeting

October 02, 2007 - Owners Developers & Managers

IREM senior vice president Randy Woodbury is to speak at the upcoming meeting on October 25th. Woodbury is corporate secretary and vice president in charge of property management for Woodbury Corporation, a family real estate firm since 1919. The firm specializes in developing and managing retail, office and hotel properties in the Western United States, mostly for its own portfolio. Woodbury received a bachelor of arts degree in Finance from the University of Utah and spent seven years in mortgage banking. In 1981, he was asked to head up Woodbury Corporation's property management department and began pursuing the CPM designation, which he received in 1987.

Nationally, Woodbury has served IREM on various committees, as regional vice president and as a member of the Executive Committee. At the chapter level, he has served in many capacities, including president of Utah Chapter No. 33 in 1992. He was honored by the chapter in 1993, 2000, and 2005 as its "CPM® of the Year."

Randy is a principal in several real estate ventures, serves as a director of American Bank of Commerce and holds Utah real estate and insurance licenses. Involved in church, civic and charitable organizations, he is a member of Rotary, the University of Utah Research Park Advisory Committee and is a board member and immediate past president of the Granite Education Foundation, serving the largest school district in Utah.
