IREM CT, Boston and R.I. host Northeast Networking event

July 20, 2018 - Connecticut

Boston, MA Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) Connecticut, Boston and Rhode Island chapters hosted 2018 Northeast Regional Networking event on June 21 at Morton The Steak House.

With over 260 members and Industry Partners in attendance what a great success it turned out to be.

As the leaders of the IREM's Northeast Region learn more about how to become an effective chapter leaders, growing membership - recruiting, engaging, retaining delivering relevant chapter programs and succession over at the Seaport World Trade Center.

To unwind they invited all the attendees to a networking event where they met new and old friends and colleagues from the industry.

A portion of the proceeds benefit the IREM Foundation

The IREM organizations industry partners who help make this networking event a great success. IREM would like to thank all the sponsors and for all your continued support!

Raffle items were donated by:

- Lia and Gregg Jenner, The Simon Companies;
