Rollins named project executive at William A. Berry & Sons, Inc.

July 16, 2008 - Construction Design & Engineering

William A. Berry & Son, Inc., a New England construction management company, has named Paul Rollins, P.E., project executive. A graduate of West Point, Rollins has worked in the construction industry for more than 20 years. He is a LEED accredited professional and has considerable experience working with green building design guidelines.

According to chief executive officer Peter Campot, "His skills and experience, including his work at the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Raytheon, and the Federal Aviation Administration, speak to his incredible attributes as a professional and a leader -- both qualities we seek and admire at Berry."
