

nerej

Saracen Properties appoints Constable as director

August 10, 2018 - Front Section

Waltham, MA Saracen Properties has hired Malcolm Constable as director. His responsibilities will include acquisitions, asset management and strategic initiatives.

Prior to Saracen, Constable was a director of acquisitions at Atlas Real Estate Partners and an associate at Clarion Partners, where he held positions in both asset and portfolio management. During his five years at Clarion, he helped manage the three million s/f Greater Boston office portfolio as well as the oversight of two separate account pension fund clients with a gross asset value of $3.5 billion. He is a member of ULI's Real Estate Technology Council and United Way's Community Builders. He has a bachelor's degree from Tufts University.

"Malcolm's institutional investment experience, in-depth market knowledge and valued relationships will add to our expanding platform," said Saracen Props. president Ted Saraceno.

"I am pleased to be working with a firm that is committed to growing its business and strengthening its already excellent reputation within the industry," said Constable.

Saracen Props. is an investor and developer of commercial office and multi-family properties. Since 2006, Saracen has developed and acquired over 5 million s/f of office and technology-related facilities in the Greater Boston market. Saracen provides a vertically integrated platform of services to execute complex development, redevelopment and repositioning initiatives which are supported by a core group of professionals, each with over 25 years of real estate experience.

New England Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540