In what way has the New England Real Estate Journal been a benefit to you and your business?: Wayne J. Griffin Electric, Inc. has been in partnership with the New England Real Estate Journal for 35 years. This year, as we proudly celebrate 40 years of successful business, we feel very fortunate to have built this relationship which has allowed us to share key milestones with the public. In 1983, what began as a single, full-page ad commemorating our company's first electrical contract over $1 million, has evolved into a consistent level of exposure and growth for our business.
