

nerej

Elkus Manfredi Architects promotes Sardegna and West to principals

September 21, 2018 - Construction Design & Engineering

Boston, MA Elkus Manfredi Architects promoted several individuals to principal and vice president.

Promoted to principal are:

Mark Sardegna, AIA, LEED AP he joined Elkus Manfredi in 2004 and is a graduate of Syracuse University (Bachelor of Architecture).

Andrew West, AIA joined Elkus Manfredi Architects in 1996. He is a graduate of Columbia University (MA, Architecture; BA).

Promoted to vice president are:

Susanne Ackermann who joined Elkus Manfredi in 1994.

Ross Cameron, RIBA, RIAS, joined Elkus Manfredi in 2004.

Linda MacLeod Fannon, IIDA, RDI, joined Elkus Manfredi Architects in 2005.

Christian Galvao who joined Elkus Manfredi Architects in 2004.

William Halter, AIA, LEED AP, joined Elkus Manfredi in 2005.

Kevin Lennon, AIA, LEED AP, joined Elkus Manfredi in 1997.

Emily Paparella, AIA, LEED AP BD+C, joined Elkus Manfredi in 2007 and Jane Zimmerman, LEED AP, joined Elkus Manfredi Architects in 2013.

“The promotion of two new Principals and eight new Vice Presidents reflects our growth as a firm and the diversity of our work, our expertise and our ambitions to deliver places and environments that build community,” said David Manfredi. “The individuals we are promoting are valued members of Elkus Manfredi Architects who contribute greatly to our clients’ success.”

Elkus Manfredi Architects is a multidisciplinary design firm providing architecture, master planning, interior architecture, and workplace engagement. Founded in 1988, it continues to be a privately owned, global design firm headquartered in Boston and is recognized for design excellence for corporate, hospitality, science and technology, higher education, residential, and retail-entertainment.

New England Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540