What is the best advice you have received, and who was it from? The best advice I have ever received was from my father. When I graduated from college and was looking for a job he said to me “Find a career and job that you love. You will be spending the better part of your life doing this job. You should be enjoying yourself.” I have always thought of this advice when I start a new venture in my career. He was right. Liking what you do is so important, and I consider myself fortunate that I really enjoy coming to work every day.
