Who or what has been the strongest influence on your career and why? I started working as a leasing agent for a REIT, in Florida, during that time there wasn't room for growth in the industry. I was working for a property manager, who started giving me her work to do. At first, I was frustrated that she would pile more and more of her work on my plate, as I had my own. It wasn't until, I decided to move back to Massachusetts, that I told her how I felt, she sat me down and said, let me ask you a few questions, she started asking me business questions, which I started to rattled off the answers too. She then looked at me and said you're welcome, I trained you for your future destination, now go to Boston, and set your goals high!
