Centerbrook's project at the Mystic Seaport Museum earns design award

October 19, 2018 - Connecticut

Mystic, CT Centerbrook Architects & Planners' project for Mystic Seaport Museum has earned design honors.

The Thompson Exhibition Building at the Mystic Seaport Museum was recognized at the Connecticut Green Building Council (CT-GBC) Awards with the Public/Institutional Award of Merit. The Thompson Building, which opened in the fall of 2016, features a number of sustainable aspects, including a geothermal heating and cooling system.

This is the third design award presented to the Thompson Building, which was also featured in ArchDaily's 100 Best Wood Projects in the U.S. list.
