Steelwrist opens U.S. headquarters at 576 Christian Ln. in Berlin

October 19, 2018 - Connecticut

Berlin, CT Steelwrist, a Swedish firm that markets, develops and manufacturers tiltrotators, quick couplers and tools for excavators has opened their U.S. headquarters at 576 Christian Ln. Their products help to make operators and construction firms more productive due to the “steel wrist” that can turn to make the excavators more profitable due to less time digging and moving excavators. Their advanced XControl and ergonomic joysticks are market leading products that make working with excavators more efficient and easier.
