NEI General Contracting

Being recognized on the ENR 400 for the first time at #375. This is a tremendous achievement for having been in business for only 20 years. With ENR as the primary publication for the construction industry, this designation shows our breadth and scope, and cohesiveness as a company, reinforcing NEI as an industry leader in both the Northeast and Southeast.

Our success is a testament to the hard work and collaborative effort of our employees.
